“ Knowing Jack was a gift of life! From being friends with Carol from an early age as children, I knew Jack as a wonderful family man, and Bruce knew him as an MSP brother. We both are saddened by his passing, but know that he is in God's hands and at peace, loved by all who had the privilege of knowing him. Deepest sympathies and comfort....Bonnie & Bruce Rafer.

“DAD, as many called Jack Davis was a unique soul. He had a knack for making everyone feel absolutely wonderful. It could have been a shared story or anecdote, a clever way of looking at things, the way he would shake your hand, look you in the eye and wish you well with obvious heartfelt sincerity. These are the markings of a Godly man who left his impression on everyone he encountered. He seemed younger than his years because of the way he approached life and each day. To him, it was as if he expected something big to happen everyday. That was contagious as he would always leave you with something interesting to ponder, and to look forward to the coming days. What a gift. Thank you from the bottom of our hearts, we will truly miss DAD. You have fought a good fight, you have finished your course, you have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for you a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give you at that day: and not to you only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

God, thank you for blessing us with Jack Davis. He was one of the rare gifts that are far and few in between. Never a cruel or harmful word did his lips utter but, I remember a warm gentle spirit that impressed upon me real strength, along with gentleness, confidence, with humility, full of wisdom, always caring, always giving, always loving! I ask that you would bless the Davis family and keep the happy memories of DAD alive in them and in the multitude of friends, family, and Sons! Thank you again for DAD!

“ I have only had the privilege of knowing Mr Jack for the last 3 years when my mom entered the FIQC facility where he was. Every time I came in the house he smiled and I would ask how are you doing today and he always said better now that I have seen you. He had such a great smile and he loved to talk with you, it was hard for him towards the end but he never stopped smiling. I never left him without saying see you later alligator, and he always replayed after awhile crocodile. I taught him to fist bump and he remembered to do it when I would leave the house. Last Thursday he was in his room when I left and I didn't want to bother him I sure wish I would have. You never know when you will not see a person again But I will miss him terribly and I know he is in Heaven looking down on us smiling.

“ We are so sorry to hear of Bro. Jack's passing, yet rejoicing he is having a "party time" with the Lord and others gone before. Our prayers are with all of you. Will always cherish the time Jack walked me down the aisle, as my father was deceased, and Millie helped tape the wedding for us. God picked another flower for His bouquet. We love all of you. “ My heart is saddened, while heaven rejoices. It's been so very long since I last saw Uncle Jack - sad to say, about 13 years. Growing up, whenever Uncle Jack's family visited, or we visited them, he'd always greet me with a big smile, a hearty hug, and a "How're ya doing, chic!" I always thought that was so cool! The Lord is getting such a loyal servant and his family is having to say, "See you later," to a wonderful husband, dad, granddad, and uncle! Comforting to know he's been made whole again! Much love and prayers to Aunt Millie, Carol, Steve, and their families. You're all in my heart!
