“ Mr. A or as I call him....(queue Matrix voice) MR. ANDERSON. He had such a dry sense of humor and we always gave each other a hard time. His love for his family is unwavering. I am going to miss you so much Mr. A. Until we see each other again.

“ My family was a neighbor of the Andersons for 4 years, while we lived in Waldorf, MD. Jim loved his family very much. Whenever I heard the icecream truck music, I knew Jim would be out treating Micheal and Michelle to icecream.

Jim was there for me one day. I was watching a neighbor's daughter while the mom was at work. The daughter had a bad fall off her bike. Jim helped console her and get her comfortable by placing her arms on pillows. We later found out she had broken both of her arms.

Jim drove his family from MD to ND to visit us. Years later, they also drove out to Indiana for our daughter's wedding. Those visits were special. We are so blessed to know this family.
