

James Lewis Ashwell

February 28, 1947 - January 24, 2021

James Lewis Ashwell, 73, of Waldorf, Maryland, passed away on Sunday, January 24, 2021 at the BridgePoint Hospital National Harbor in Washington, DC.

Born on February 28, 1947 in Lynchburg, Virginia, he was the son of the late James Lewis Ashwell and Ruth C. Ashwell. James was a General Contractor who owned and operated his own roofing and construction company. He enjoyed old cars, listening to Motown music, fishing, watching football and baseball, spending time with his family and beloved dog, Peppy.

In addition to his parents, James was preceded in death by his son Kevin Ashwell.

Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic situation, funeral service and interment will be limited to immediate family only. The family extends their regrets that they will be without your friendship and physical comfort. We do sincerely hope that Celebration of James' life will be possible in the future.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions, in James' name, may be made to National Kidney Foundation, Finance Department, 30 East 33rd Street, New York, NY 10016 or to the American Diabetes Association, 1400 Sixteenth Street, NW – Suite 410, Washington, DC 20036.

Condolences and memories may be made on James' Tribute Wall.

“ It was a pleasure taking care of Mr. Ashwell. There was not a day he came to dialysis and didn't have something kind to say. He had a heart of gold. We will miss him!
