

James Thomas Blanche

December 31, 1940 - April 27, 2019

James Thomas Blanche, 78, passed away on April 27th at Washington Hospital Center.

He is the son of James Gardner Blanche and Helen McCann Blanche.

He is survived by his wife of 29 years, Kathleen Blanche; two sons, Michael (Nikki) and Kevin (Nancy) Blanche; and two daughters, Debbie Stanko and Lisa (Randy Althouse). He is also survived by 10 grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

His family will forego a traditional funeral and honor his wishes to have his ashes spread on his farm, his favorite golf course, and off of Solomon's Island where he learned to sail.

If desired, people can send a donation for the CBN Water Well Project, PO Box 337, Port Tobacco, MD 20677.

Kathy, we all loved Jim. I'm going to miss his crazy concoctions of drinks and those funny jokes. He was a special brother in law and uncle. We will miss him but he's pain free now and hitting holes in one on that big course in the sky!!! Hope he's wearing his Panthers hat! 🤔

Kathy...I remember my meeting you for the first time at Reunion for the Blanche / Poore Families several years ago. It was such a nice surprise to see our favorite Cousin, Jimmy and you, as It had been many, many years. He will be with all the Blanches, both from Scotland and the U.S.A. I know you will find comfort in all the happy memoriessending my thoughts and prayers to you. Helen Blanche Barry (Jacksonville, Florida)
