“Uncle Bull was one of a kind. When I was a toddler, my dad and him would call each other BIL (brother-in-law), I couldn't say that so I would call him Bull, and the name stuck, lol! He was always ready to have a good time when it came to family events, especially crab feasts. You couldn't talk to him while he was eating crabs, he was in his own (crabby) world. I used to love joking with him about the Redskins and the Cowboys, he would get so riled up! I admired the love he and Aunt Sandy had for each other, their playful and happy relationship. He was always putting other people ahead of himself. I loved hearing him tell me about Ghost adventures and experiences he had with ghosts. Aunt Sandy and I would torment him with Bohemian Rhapsody, he hated that song. I always got him some kind of Beatles merchandise for Christmas and he loved Texas Roadhouse. When Aunt Sandy passed away in 2020, it was hard to see him at family events without her, but we were so blessed to still have him. He helped my parents out with so much at the beginning of this year, he was truly an Angel on Earth. I thank you so much Uncle Bull for your love, kindness, generosity, selflessness and eagerness to help. We will truly miss you so much, but we take comfort in knowing that you are at peace with Our Lord and that you and Aunt Sandy are together again, watching over us all. We love you so much.

Love,

Katie, Timmy, Jordan, Ayden, Josh, Landen and Jaxden

“ Uncle Bull really was the kindest person with the most gentle soul. He is my uncle through marriage but it didn't take anytime for him to accept me as true family. I'll miss seeing him with his bag full of Tupperware containers (for left overs), at every family gathering. Uncle Bull would always inquire about my cats, their personalities, and exchange our love for them :) He loved our children so much and they loved him back. I love the way both girls say, in their little baby voices, "Bull! Bull!" One thing that with always leave a huge impact on my heart, was when I was going through a rough time and Uncle Bull watched me with both babies (at the time) and pulled me aside to say to me "you are a really great Mother and those girls are lucky to have a Mom like you. You are beautiful and strong and smart" That compliment really pulled my heart strings.

He was such a good, good man. I am happy that he is at peace now with the lord and Aunt Sandy.

Jimmy...I met in 2009 when I arrived to NAVFAC. A gentle Giant in my eyes. He walked his wife to work every day. Jimmy reminded me that gentleman still live in this world by those actions. He enjoyed laughing and always gave from his heart! Last time I saw him he gave me a hug and that made us friends and brothers for life because as men who born in the last century; we rarely hug other men unless we consider them special to us. I will always hold dear to me heart that last hug Jimmy! My Brother....My Friend!
