“ I still remember the day that Mr Giles took Mike and Me to see the Senators play; Ted Williams was the coach back then.

After the game we went back to Mr & Mrs Adam's farm and Mr Giles hit fly balls to us while we stood in what is now a corn field. I CAUGHT All the balls hit to me, Mike MISSED all the balls his Dad hit to him.

That was one of the best days of my life, my First Pro Baseball game!

I'm glad they let me tag along that day.

Mr. Giles also called the police on me for ridding my mini bike one day...he would still laugh about that whenever he saw me!

Thank you Mr Giles, YOU WERE A GOOD MAN!

Thanks, Joe (although I think you got mixed up on who caught/missed the balls). Dad thought very highly of you. Remember when he made us pick up all the beer and liquor bottles we threw out at the school? He always laughed about that too. I will really miss him!

My husband Jim and I thought the world of Jimmy and his wonderful wife Shirley. We lived across the street from them and Jimmy and my husband Jimmie visited quite a bit through the years of us living there so close to him and Shirley. I would go to visit Shirley and have coffee and my Jim would have a beer or two and talk for hours and enjoy each others company often. They were such a wonderful family. Blessings go out to the entire Giles Family. Our thoughts and Prayers are with all of you.

Shirley and Mike,

I did not know that James had passed away until I was at Hilda McDonald's funeral on Dec 23rd. A man I did not know asked me who I was and how I knew Hilda. Cleo told him I was "some kid" of James. When I told him how I knew James, it is when he told me about his death. James was my favorite of my mothers step-brothers and I even had a doll named Jimmy and I have a picture of James holding me with the doll. Most of all I remember James and Shirley standing under at tree at my father's grave site. James was holding my 29 day old daughter Mallory. He is looking down with such love for a little one he had only met. I have been truly blessed to have been relative to James had a chance to see him a few years back.

I will always remember him with good memories and the world has lost a great man.
