“ *Jim was a wonderful husband to my mother, Betty Mae. He was a great dancer and loved fishing. It was so fun to watch Pop and Mom doing the jitterbug together, Mom was 4 feet and Jim was over 6 feet. Jim was a patient man who always had the time to listen very well before speaking. He care deeply for all those he loved. He had a grand sense of humor and played along with any good gag....
Love you Pop
You done good and I'll miss you
