“ I wasn't a close friend of Jimmy, frankly I knew him from riding the commuter bus to and from DC with him. In the few moments I saw him every week, however, I learned of his love of family, God, and church and knew him to be a kind and caring person. Every now and then, I'd see him at work as we worked in the same building and he always had time to say hello or crack a (corny) joke. He was always a welcome face at the bus stop and someone I enjoyed spending just a few moments with as we stood out in the weather. In these small ways, he touched my life and I'm sure the lives of many others. He will be missed but not forgotten.

“ Jimmy always had a smile on his face. Ken, Kenny, Amy and I remember the good times we shared in Port Tobacco years ago. Whether we worked (or maybe, looked that way) on our sea wall, had a bite to eat or played horseshoes, they were times when we will think of them often and cherish all the fond memories. Rest In Peace and keep smiling Jimmy.

My condolences to the family. I worked with Jimmy at the Ronald Reagan building for many years. I made it a point to have coffee with him every day possible. How he enjoyed his coffee! I loved listening to him tell stories and enjoyed laughing at his jokes. Not only was he a good "talker", but he was an even better listener! We talked about the weather. We talked about life. We talked about faith. We talked about anything and everything! Boy, we did a lot of talking! It was always a pleasure just to be around him. He was always joyful, kind, humble, loving, and caring. Everyone that knew him would tell you the same. He was an adviser, a brother, a father, and a friend to me. I'll never forget him!

Jimmy and I worked together at EPA for about 7 years. He was a very good friend...even like a brother. I used to call him "Jimmy Jam." Jimmy's jokes kept us laughing all day. He was a good man who loved the Lord, his family, and his church. My love and prayers are with the family. May God comfort you all.
