“ James Richards (Slim):

To the outside world we all grow old, but not to brothers and sisters, we remember how things were. When I look back at our childhood and adult memories, Smiles and outbursts of laughter erupts and sometimes those favorable memories sneak up on you, be it in the still of a quiet night, kids playing silly games, listening to the radio or the coming of a thunderstorm. Our lives were rich because of the commitment our parents gave to each other, and to their children We knew each other's hearts. We shared private family jokes and pranks. We had our family feuds and secrets, family griefs and joys, and for the most part, overcame them. Thanks you, Slim, for the smile that slowly comes forth, and the warmth felt in my heart. You are going to be greatly missed but you leave me with great memories, love you and see you again one day. Connie
