“ Uncle Jim, I'll never forget you. You hold a special place in my heart. I don't remember life without you, but glad I was able to spend more time with you and get to know you better in more recent years. We shared some fun as well as serious times... great memories that I will cherish! And, as someone mentioned earlier, you were always the gentleman, which is the way I'll remember you, too. Great picture, by the way. Say hello to Aunt Cat for me. I love you both! RIP!

“ We rented the little house from your parents in 1979. We had just moved to Maryland, fresh out of college. We were so lucky to rent from them. What wonderful people! I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I can picture him riding the tractor with Friskie running behind. I've thought of them both often over the years. Jody Beard

“ My Dearest Uncle Jim, you connected the Rollins and Thompson families together. For that I am grateful. Jon and I enjoyed our many chats, some were fun and some serious. You were a wonderful listener and gave good advice to us. I love your personality and the smiles and hugs. You were a humble man and we looked up to. There will be void without you but we will see you again. Now you and Aunt Cat, no bickering, you're back with your love of your life. God bless to my Rollins family. RIP Uncle Jim

“ Jim was a great brother with whom I shared many wonderful times in our lives. As an older brother in school he always looked out for me. The joys and sad times we shared made us very close. I will miss him and hearing his voice as we shared my 82 years of knowing him. There were four of us in the family and we have been blessed that all of us have had a warm loving relationship, Rest in peace my dear brother.

I will miss thIs dear man. He has always been a part of my life. He taught me how to multiply. I struggled with math until Jim explained it to me. He was an excellent husband to my sister Anna (Cat) and a great Dad. He had a good sense of humor and enjoyed a good time.RIP Jim?
