In loving memory of James Eric Stanley

Born in Washington, DC to his mother, Fay Fuller, a deceased father, Mancy Stanley on 09/12/1975. I give many thanks to my parents Willie Mae and Leroy Fuller who helped me raise him may they rest in peace.

He is survived by his parents, Fay Fuller and George Scarborough; his daughter, JaShauna Stanley (and her mother, Takiya); his brothers, Garth, Keith, and Korey Salmon; sisters, Candice Anderson, Tyerra Scarborough, and Jenifer Madello (wife of Keith Salmon). He is also survived by his play brother, Chris Madello as well as sister CeCe, brothers, George Jr. and Felly, his aunt Iris Andrews; uncles Leroy, Keith and Mark Fuller; and a host of relatives and friends.

He was educated in Washington, DC and completed 12th grade at Crossland night school. He was married and has a daughter, JaShauna, later divorced and enjoyed his jobs in security and as a truck driver he became ill over the years struggling with a few medical issues which lead to heart surgery and has now lead to him leaving this life on 6/10/2018. He has his wings now. No more pains and trying to get home. Rest in peace, my son. You are home now. We will always love you and miss you.
