“ I have so many fond memories of Sunday dinners at our grandparents house in Woodlawn. After dinner grandpop would take us kids for walks. I also have memories of your family coming to our house on Christmas evening. I always looked forward to those visits. We had so much fun as kids. We went different directions when we grew up, but the memories are still there as if it were yesterday. Rest in peace Jimmy.

“ Some of my best memories were the holidays we got together, at MomMom & DaDa's house on Fernpark Ave and playing together. Also when Jimmy would occasionally come over my parents house and spend time with us. I also will miss when the annual Birthday calls we made to each other and chat awhile. I will miss those good times we had.
