

Jane Black

April 9, 1931 - June 6, 2011

The loving wife, mother of four, and friend to many was born April 9, 1931 in New London, CT. Jane lived in Charles County for more than 16 years with homes in Bryantown, La Plata, and most recently, in White Plains. As a Coast Guard spouse for 30 years, Jane made many friends, played an active role in many communities and experienced living in interesting locations, including Newfoundland, Puerto Rico, Alaska, Hawaii, and all across the continental states. After retirement, they moved back to William's hometown of Bradford, PA where she let her green thumb go wild and cultivated many acres of beautiful flowers. She carried this love for gardening, crafting, knitting, and entertaining as they moved to La Plata, MD in 1996 to be closer to family.

Daughter of the late Harry Mercer Beebe and the late Rose Emily Korner Beebe.

Predeceased by her parents; her husband, William Samuel Black (CAPT, USCG Ret for 58 years); two sisters, Dorothy Quinn and Helen Smith; and two brothers, Horace M. Beebe and Russell A. Beebe.

Survived by four children, Jeffrey N. Black and his wife Jan of La Plata, MD, Bruce W. Black and his wife Gail of Waldorf, MD, Gregory J. Black and his wife Denise of Chesapeake, VA, and Melissa J. Leitner of White Plains, MD. Also survived by five grandchildren.

Interment: Mrs. Black will be interred with her late husband at Arlington National Cemetery on Tuesday, August 16, 2011 during a private ceremony. A memorial gathering will be held on August 14, 2011 at Jeff & Jan Black's home in La Plata, MD at 4PM.

Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice House of Charles County, PO Box 1703, La Plata, MD 20646.
