“ My condolences to Chris, Alyce and Dan and Michael and his family for the loss of their wife, mother and grandmother. My memories of the countless times I sat across the dinner table from Jan and Chris telling stories and offering solutions to world problems are treasured beyond words. Jan was as true a friend as anyone was ever blessed with. i am glad I had the honor and privilege of knowing her.

“Mrs. Christner, I am grateful that you were a part of my life, it was an honor and a privilege to have known you. Your beautiful soul, humor and kindness always made me feel like a part of your family. You cared for me and watched over me when I was a kid; you were like a second Mom to me. You always had time for me and your home was always open to me. In adulthood, you were also a great friend to me.

*Kind, classy, clever, big-hearted, funny, smart, elegant - you reminded me of film stars of the 40's because you had such a clever and classy way of handling things, especially when it came to us kids. I'm laughing as I'm crying here thinking of three sayings that will forever be embedded in my memory in your voice: 'Car 54, where are you?' (because I was, well, not infrequently running late), 'what the Sam Hill?!' (this was said most likely whenever I and/or I and Alyce did something that probably almost got us in trouble!), and 'Ang - you'd better get off of the phone now because a storm's coming, and be careful using water until the storm's over' (the calm voice of good common sense and reason).*

I'll never forget you and will always remember you with much love. Keep 'em smiling, keep 'em in-check. Rest in peace, Mrs. Christner.

To Alyce and Mr. Christner - I am so sorry for your loss and am sorry that I cannot be there in person. Know that you all are very much in my thoughts and that I send you my condolences and love in your time of grief.

*Love you always,
Angie*

“ Janet was a beautiful soul. She is the grandmother of my two children, Jonathon and Lacey, and I wish we had lived closer so they would have known her better. She was a great grandmother, amazing wife (just ask George!), wonderful mother, and very special mother-in-law to me - she made me feel like I was part of the family and I have many wonderful memories of her and will miss her forever ❤️

You know I was already missing you and I'll continue missing you. I'll always remember sharing a Yuengling with you on your holiday visits, the unparalleled awesome food cooked with love (even though the kitchen would look like a grenade had been thrown in), making sure your dogs were burned just right, and the bickering banter of you and George as you arrived in our drive over who forgot what that's probably still sitting on the freezer. You know I enjoyed instigating and throwing logs on the fire to keep you two going for my own amusement. We will all take care of George, but not come close to the care you gave tirelessly. You have awesome friends and family and I'm humbled to be included.

I will always love you and never forget you. You have left a hole in my heart that may heal with a scar but will never refill.

*Forever loving,
Dan*

Jan, I did not have a chance to say goodbye properly. I want you to know, how lucky I feel to have had you in my life and to be part of your family. You welcomed me and made me feel loved from the beginning. I enjoyed our e-mails and our phone calls. We had a lot in common. We both loved pretty things, BLING, good manners and family. We could talk about politics forever. We agreed on all of it. When I came to visit, you made EVERYTHING so special. I was honored. I loved sharing my children and grandchildren with you.

You gave me the best gift a mother could ever give... her son. I will take care of him. You will know that he will always be loved and cared for. I will make him crab cakes and stuffed port chops. I will treasure the recipes that you gave me and the picture of the yellow roses.

So, good bye for now. I love you and miss you very much. Your daughter- in -law, Cece
