

Janet Kay Hall

July 27, 1950 - September 13, 2018

Janet Kay Ould Hall, age 68, (formerly of La Plata, Maryland), died on September 13, 2018 in Hampstead, North Carolina.

Raised in Forest Heights, Janet was the daughter of LaVera Stevens and Eugene Ould, and a sister to Charlotte. She married Michael Hall in 1972, with whom she had 3 children (Michael, Traci, Jenna), 3 dogs (Misty, Brandy, Gunner), and, despite Michael's initial protesting, 3 cats (Tiger, Samantha, and B-Bop).

Janet worked as a bank teller, and later, financial service representative, from 1989 to 2013. She could often be seen driving down Route 6 in La Plata, with the windows down in her Dodge Dakota or Chevy Silverado, smoking a cigarette, and singing along to Oldies 100.3 or 98.7 WMZQ.

She is survived by her son, Michael Hall; her two daughters, Traci Tompkins, and Jenna Hall; and four grandchildren, Kameron, Tyler, Emma and McKenzie.

A gathering of family and friends will be held on Tuesday, September 25, 2018 from 4PM until time for a Memorial Service to begin at 6PM at Raymond Funeral Service, P.A. 5635 Washington Avenue La Plata, Maryland 20646. Interment will be private.

“ Nanny.... I had a dream about you recently and out of all my dreams I've had about you this one described our relationship perfectly. All I will give away is you were giving a good ole nasty read to a piece of shit that deserved it. You were always good at that... I love you. I can't believe my mom & you are both in heaven now. I miss you both and I have no doubt that the two of you are together watching down on me... I miss you lovely ladies

“ Hi Nanny. It's Kameron. 4 words in and I'm already crying. It's July. Your birthday month. I believe me and you are similar in a lot of ways... Specifically in how we deal with people we love and hate. I believe we both have a gift of being able to see right through people to their core and not the mask they put on for the world. We see the nasty shit everyone ignores and with that comes anger. I'm really angry Nanny. I'm mad that the world I live in is full of con artists, manipulators, and deadbeat parents. What makes it better is knowing that you saw all the same things I did! I watched you stay true to your intuition. You saw right through the facades and you were content with your own company, something many people won't learn in a lifetime. You chose your company wisely! I wish I could have complimented you on how strong you were for this. It takes a strong person to be content with only hearing their voice talk back to them. I hope in heaven you are with your dad(the man you loved so much) and Abbey. Remember when you would let me bring Abbey over to spend the night. You put a blanket down on the couch so she wouldn't get dog hair on your sofa. The two things that brought so much joy to my life are now in heaven. I'd be lying if I said a piece of my heart wasn't missing but I know you live inside me. I love you & I miss you.

“ Nanny it's Kameron.... I am reading a book called “The 5 Love Languages of Children” and I started to think about all the times we shared together when I was a child. I loved sitting with you and talking about anything and everything. Whether it was sleeping right next to you or having tea in the morning. We would reorganize your living room which is probably the reason why I love organizing today. I can hear you now screaming “shadow” because he wouldn't stop crying outside your door at 1 in the morning. I loved everything about you. Your Christmas spirit. Walking into your home to hear your Christmas songs & to see all your decorations. You made me feel special. Our relationship meant the world to me. I wish I wasn't so young at the time and was able to express my love for you more. I wish I could call you right now and talk on the phone. I have a lot of shit to tell you. I need you to make me laugh. To put things into perspective. To give a good ole nasty read to those who deserve it. I remember all your funny stories about putting people in their place. I remember you putting my middle schooo iss teacher in her place at Walmart. She deserved it. You always had my back. I always knew I could come to you about anything and you would listen. Thank you for saving my life as a child. If it wasn't for you I would have been a sad little boy every day of my life. Every time I got to see you I was reminded of what love felt like. I miss you & I love you.

“ My Nanny... I miss your phone calls and your birthday cards but what I miss most is the unconditional love you always showed me. I try to only remember you during your best times because I know that is what you would want me to do. I love you with all my heart Nanny. There isn't a day that goes by that I don't miss you or think about you.

“ Chip, Traci & Jenna: my heart goes out to you. I've been thinking about your mom all weekend. It's difficult to condense over sixty years of memories into a few short sentences so I won't try. We grew up together and shared so much. I will remember her for her love of her children and grandchildren. Her love of Motown and George Strait. Her love of the beach. Love of The Hallmark Channel. Her love of animals. And, oh, how she loved to go out to dinner! We had great times together. I have those memories to cherish and hold in my heart. Gayle
