

Janet Day Lapelosa

January 5, 1953 - October 13, 2015

Janet Day Lapelosa, 62, of Newburg, MD passed away on October 13, 2015 at Georgetown University Hospital, Washington, DC.

She was born January 5, 1953 in Washington, DC to the late John Emery and Janet Elizabeth Kane Day.

She was a loving and devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She was an avid animal lover, especially panda bears and hummingbirds. She enjoyed watching and photographing wildlife. She loved her music. She loved being at the beach and going swimming. Before retiring she worked for over 20 years for the Federal Government at the Census Bureau as a clerk/typist. She enjoyed spending time with her family and close friends. She was a kind and caring person who was always there to help others.

Janet is survived by her husband of 44 years John David Lapelosa; one son James Edward Lapelosa; two daughters, Julie Marie Lapelosa and her husband Thomas Steiner and Jennifer Elaine Lapelosa; one brother George Day (Arena); two sisters, Carol Grey (Eileen Renniger) and Dorothy Day; one grandchild Skylar Williams; long time best friends Joanne and Dicky Lanham as well as the whole Lanham/Williams family; as well as numerous in-laws and a large extended family.

Contributions are requested to be made to Charles County Humane Society, P.O. Box 1015, Waldorf, MD 20604 and/or ASPCA at www.ASPCA.org.

Memorial gathering will be on Saturday, October 24, 2015 from 2:30PM until the time of memorial service at 3:30PM at Raymond Funeral Service, P.A.

“ Janet me an Bryan miss you so much, an you've been in Bryan's life for 13yrs now, an I want to say thank you for loving him like he was your own. An the same goes for me I've known you for 31yrs an I have always been able to count on you to be my best friend, to listen, to be understanding, someone who gave me great insight, an I've treated you like my second mom, an you are my son Bryan's Godmother, I miss our days out together, you also loved my dog Indy unconditionally, an ever since you bought him that darn Dingo Bone with the red meat in the middle, when he was 2yrs old, he still will not eat ANY other bone or rawhide. You've spoiled him rotten, but he knows that when Janet comes over he always gets his special bone. An I love that every time you came over to go swimming, or to just hang out an visit, those are the littlest memories that meant so much, an you have taken a part us with you, but you will never leave our hearts. Thank you for all the wonderful memories. We all, The Lanham's, The Williams's, an The Banks's we will continue to love you forever.
