“ I just want to spend my condolences to the family at this time! 😞 I am so sorry to hear the passing of Janice. She will definitely be missed by many and loved by so many more!

♥ My heart goes out especially to her husband, children, sisters and so many other family members and friends! She was a wonderful person inside and out and would light up any room she was in or make anyone she was around laugh and just love her! I am so very sorry that she had to leave this world but she is no longer suffering , however I know her family definitely is! She loved there family and anytime u were around any of them, weather you were family or not you were always treated like family!!! I guess god had other plans for her and needed her up there with him. One thing I can say , is all her family and friend now have one of the best Guardian angels looking over them. Always remember the good fun memories that everyone had made with her, she was so full of life even going threw everything she was and she didn't let that slow her down to much! She was a wonderful person that I got the pleasure of meeting and being around (Not a lot but you didn't have to be around her a lot for her to rub off on you! Janice, you had a heart of gold and was nice to everyone u came in contact with. You had no problem lighting up a room anytime u walked into one. You went threw a lot of stuff towards the end but never gave up and keep on fighting! In my eyes that's a true soldier and a survivor and didn't let anything stop you from doing what u had to! I know your family is definitely hurting big time with this news and of course so is anyone that you met. I'm so sorry, but you are free and god has you now. Watch over all your loved ones especially your kids, husband and sisters and the rest of your family a long with your friends. We all miss and love you dearly, life will never be the same without you here with us! Fly high beautiful, and watch over your family and friends!!! ❤️🙏❤️🙏❤️🙏 God Bless !

I am so sorry to hear of your loss. I feel like I've always known Janice We went to school together, worked at Hardee's together, canoeing together, laughing together, good time. I will always think of Janice smiling with her big happy heart.
