

Janice Levin Hardesty

June 20, 1941 - September 27, 2024

Janice “Pookie” Levin Hardesty, 83, passed away peacefully on September 27, 2024. Janice was a long-time resident of White Plains, Maryland. She was preceded in death by her husband, Vernon Hardesty, daughter Susan Lynn Green, parents Thelma and Hyman Levin, brother David Levin and sister Marcia Watcheski. Janice’s surviving children are: Sherri Bobik (Kenneth), Shawna Norris (Michael), Kevin Hardesty and Jason Hardesty (Stephanie), her sister Jacquelin Tippett (Lewis), and sister in law Susan Levin. Janice was also blessed with 10 wonderful grandchildren and 5 great-grandchildren.

Janice’s children, with the support and help of family and friends, were at her bedside throughout her declining months, providing her comfort and consolation unconditionally.

Shortly after graduating from LaPlata High School, Janice joined the U.S. Army in March 1961 as a Hospital Attendant; assigned to Tripler Army Medical Center, Honolulu, HI. At the end of her enlistment, she focused on raising her family while also pursuing a career in the federal government at the Naval Ordnance Station in Indian Head, Maryland.

In addition to loving her family, Janice loved watching birds at her many outside feeders. Her feral cat, Blaze, provided her much love and comfort during her declining years. Janice also loved to crochet. She made many wonderful lap blankets, afghans and other items for family, friends and charities.

A visitation will be held on Tuesday October 8, 2024 from 5PM-8PM and prayers being at 7PM at the Raymond Funeral Service, P.A., 5635 Washington Avenue, La Plata, Maryland 20646.
