“ Janice was definitely one of the best—best neighbor and friend. I had the privilege of knowing Janice for 45 years. During that time she began many new chapters in her life—from teenager, to wife, to mother, and to grandmother. It was a journey well lived as she shared her kindness and love with all the people she knew. Our world is a lonelier place now, but may she rest in peace, and her family gain strength from her beautiful memories.

*With Deepest Sympathy,
Linda and Ed*

“ Janice, my heart is just broken for Melanie, Thomas, your BEAUTIFUL Grandbabies and your family. You were one of the SWEETEST chick's I know and you're already missed. I was supposed to call you Thursday the 19th but God called you before I could make that call. One thing that I'm thankful for is that you are no longer in any pain !! Prayers going out to your ENTIRE family. 💔
🙏💔 And I hope they know you are now their most BEAUTIFUL Guardian Angel watching over ALL of them. Missing you already and loved you like a Sis !! 💜
