

Jason Playfair

April 30, 1969 - April 19, 2020

Jason Playfair, 50, also known as Jay, Jay Play, Big J, and Bubby, was unexpectedly taken from us too early on April 19.

He left behind his Father George, Mother Lola, Brother George, Sisters Lisa and Stacey and a piece of his soul to carry on in his daughter, Summer, the light of his life.

He lived his life, his way, and to the fullest. If you knew him, you knew his big heart, his love of travel, his laugh, and you surely have a story to tell, and we will Celebrate his Life at a time when we can share it together.

Jason enjoyed helping others by volunteering at his local food pantry, and in lieu of flowers please donate, if you can, food, your time, or monies to the food pantry at Community Support Systems, in person at 13500 Baden Westwood Road or via mail P.O. Box 206, Brandywine MD 20613 , or to your local food bank in his honor.

“ Hi Playfair family.
So sorry to hear about your son Jason. I remember George when you would take my son and Jason to the Redskins games. I know you must have many fond memories of Jason, but he is know in heaven with his God, Grand Parents and other friends. Our family prayers are with the Playfair family.

“ On behalf of the volunteers of the Baden Food Pantry, I offer our condolences to the family of Jason Playfair. Jason was a dedicated volunteer who enjoyed working at the food pantry. He was always willing to help in all areas as needed, and he completed every task with a positive attitude. He worked well with the other volunteers and developed a special relationship with many of the volunteers and clients. His pleasant personality and smile will be missed by his food pantry family. We will cherish the time that Jason shared with us at the Baden Food Pantry.
