Jeanette Green, of Waldorf Maryland, died peacefully at the Charles County Hospice House in Waldorf on Thursday, January 30 at the age of 92.

Jeanette and her late husband Raymond Green were among the first to take up residence in the new community of St. Charles in Waldorf MD in the 1960s, moving to Southern MD from Philadelphia PA, and she lived in her home on Sloan Avenue until two months before her death. Jeanette lived a rich life of service and was the epitome of the volunteer, belonging to such organizations as National Active and Retired Federal Employees (NARFE), National Extension Homemakers Council (NEHC), Friends of the Charles County Public Library, Citizens for the Charles County Public Library, Charles County Literacy Council, Lung Association of Southern Maryland, 4-H Clubs of Charles County, Port Tobacco Players, Christmas in April, and at the Hospital and Commissary at the Andrews Air Force Base.

Born on October 6, 1927 in New York, New York, she was the daughter of Sylvan and Florence Katz. At 18, she married the love of her life Raymond R.

Jeanette had recently completed her memoir about her family's adventures. She was a friend to all with an infectious, sunny disposition and spent the final weeks of her life reading extensively (over 50 non-fiction books) and connecting with her many friends and relatives thru visitation, via phone and email.

She is survived by her sons Steven (Deanna), Jerry (Barbara), Terry (Cheri) and grandchildren Jaime, Jodi (David), Aron, Jesse, Tommy (Emma), Viktor, Nadya, Katie (Steve) , Lindsey (J.J.) and great-grandchildren George, Scott, Julia, Steven, Madilyn, Grace, Jacob, Dominic, Matthew and David.

In addition to her parents, Jeanette was preceded in death by her husband Raymond Ruben Green (Chief Master Sergeant, US Air Force-Retired), her grandson Jeffrey Adam Green and her many pets.
