I will always remember Jennifer. I can still see her playing in the front yard and back yard . The Four of July with all of us cooking out and watching the fireworks . This corkie little girl with a warm smile. Jenn could turn your bad day into a great day with her joking around. I will always remember just how much she loves her mom and dad & stepdad. Her biggest achievement was getting married to Jason and having little GRACIE. Jenn could always brighten up a room . Always up beat and full of life. I know that my own father loved her so much. Oh hell ,we all loved Jenn. Rest in peace baby girl. Thanks for allowing us to be part of your life. It's been an honor and privilege to have known you.LOVE & MISS YOU SWEETHEART BUT NEVER FORGOTTEN
