“ Many years ago, my husband and I met Mrs. Joan. We thought she was a beautiful, classy, lady. We offer our condolences and prayers to the Crownover family. May God grant you grace and strength throughout the grief process! Remember, we can never lose the love and the people we carry in our hearts even when they are absent. To be absent on earth is to be present with our Lord. May the God of all hope, comfort and peace strengthen your ties and the love you have. Like any good parent, Mrs. Joan, would want you to continue in the things that make this life worth living!!! Blessings & Peace--The Williamses.
