I was so sorry to hear this news. Someone from Bayonne called me. Joanne was raised by my uncle, Edward O'Donnell in Bayonne, N.J. We reconnected several years ago after she moved back from Florida. She introduced me to the Carmelites and because of her, I became a Restorer. I know how much she and Fred did for them over the years. She was so proud of her boys and the grandchildren. We lost touch again. Both our lives were so focused on family. I know she will be missed by her family and the Carmelites.

Margie O'Donnell Mc Nerney, her cousin.

One of God's greatest blessings is His gift of special people in our lives. What a beautiful, and spiritual person she was to me. May God grant her eternal rest.
