“ So sorry for your loss. Just checking the Obituary today May 11 and was shocked to see he had passed. Myself, Craig Simmons and Tommy were inseperatable during high school and a few years after before work took us away. So many good times we had most of them were in the woods around camp fires telling lies and having some of the best times of our life. They say you are never dead until the last one that new you speakes your name for the last time. Tommy will be remembered for a long time.

“ I will forever remember our short stint on the bowling league! Tommy carried our team. The rest of us weren't very good at bowling!
So many memories throughout the years ... on the deck just hanging out! I will continue to pray for your family and love you all so much.
