

John Blake

August 6, 1943 - July 30, 2009

On July 30, 2009, John Eugene Blake departed this life and transitioned into eternal life. John was born on August 6, 1943, to Levi Raymond Blake and the late Dorothy Ford.

On July 21, 1978, he married Agnes Pauline Collins. He was employed as a mail carrier at NSWC in Indian Head, MD, from 1973 until 1988 from where he retired. He had a love for music and would play his guitars for hours. Eugene was well known for telling anyone how he felt at that moment (whether you liked what he had to say or not).

He leaves to cherish his memory his loving wife, Agnes; two sons, William Eugene and Steven John, and one daughter, Valerie Anna; daughter-in-law, Kimberly Deanna Blake and one granddaughter, Deanna Kimberly Blake. He is also survived by his brothers, Raymond, Joseph, Melvin, William, Chuckie Blake and Kenneth Ford; his devoted sister, Delores (Ford) Craig, and other siblings. He is also survived by his mother-in-law, Pauline Collins; sisters-in-law, Gloria Blake, Celestine Ford, Cora Thompson and Rose Carroll; brothers-in-law, Paul, Michael and John Collins. He is survived by aunts, Beatrice Washington, Mildred Munson, Agnes Chase, Inez Matthews and Roberta Johnson; uncles, Matthew and John Ford and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Visitation will be Wednesday, August 5, 2009, from 9AM until time of service at 10:30AM at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, La Plata, MD.

Fr. Robert Kosty will officiate.

Pallbearers will be John Collins, Paul Collins, Calvin Ford, Chris Ford, Emory Ford, and Phillip Ford.

Honorary Pallbearer will be Richard Ford.

Interment will be at St. Catherine's Catholic Church Cemetery, Welcome, MD.
