“ I remember one time J.R. and I had gotten into a little scuffle in our kitchen in eastpines, Now during our scuffle the legs of our kitchen table were broken off. well we came up with a plan the plan was to have JR on one side of the table and me on the other side holding both legs during dinner. Well you can imagine how that worked out as we were trying to eat and hold up both legs slowly the plates that we were eating off of started sliding towards our DAD and if you knew our DAD you can just imagine the cussing that came out of his mouth hahaha But it didn't compare to the yelling cussing and more yelling he did when the screws he put in the flanges to hold the legs on were way to long and the screws came through the top of our kitchen table hahaha. Im never going to forget you JR my heart has an empty spot in it now ill no longer be able to talk to you about things that only you and I knew about that only brothers can share I LOVE YOU JR MAY YOU REST IN PEACE AND AS THE NATIONALS ANNOUNCER SAYS SEE YOU LATER

“ Always enjoyed our visits together at Grandmother/Pap Custer's home in Brunswick, MD. Wish we had gotten together more often when we were little kids. J.R. and Gary had a good laugh teasing my mother, their Aunt Gloria, about some of her seasonal decorations.

I can well remember how proud Donna and Bill were when J.R. was born.

My sympathies to all of J.R.'s family. I know this is a tough loss for each of you.
