“ John was my sister's pride and joy. Not everyone is always remembered in this world, but I know all who knew John will remember him for the rest of their lives. He was an angel placed on this earth by God. I'm blessed knowing that he is now with his loving mother and grandfather who loved him most in this world.

Many thanks to the staff of the Holly Center who cared for him all these years.

“ John was one of my first students when I started working at MSB. I treasured the many years that followed working with him until he graduated. He was such a happy guy who didn't need much to make him smile. After leaving MSB, there were times when I checked my answering machine only to hear him laughing (with encouragement from Grammy in the background), which made me smile and brighten my day. That is the Johnny Lindsey I will remember. Thanks for those memories and the many more that I have carried for all these years and for years to come.
