“ Well, I met Rhonda when I was 18 so I imagine John was close to 21. He may have just come home from Beirut. I'm not sure. What I am sure about is those two got together at a stressful time and somehow always made it work. I remember eating can corn beef in a 1,000 different ways only to be absolutely amazed at how far they had come (not only in their jobs, material possession) but in their marriage and raising their children. They were wonderful to each other (most of the time - but aren't we always?), they cherished their children and the world revolved around the grandkids. Very genuine people and irreplaceable friends. I will love and miss you always John. Love, Lynn
