“ It feels like it's been forever since you've been gone, yet it's only been such a short time. I'm still trying to figure out a way forward without you. We had always thought we had forever in front of us and we planned for it ... This was never a part of those plans. All of your family is hurting for you, each in their own way. I wish you had the chance to see how much. I'm so glad you considered me not only your wife and your soulmate but also your one true best friend and confidant. It breaks my heart they your wishes haven't been honored at all and I hope that one day I will have a part of you with me. Your brothers, the ones you are bound to by honor, have surrounded me and have given me comfort and support, now I understand when you told me that they are my family too. I have to tell you that Keith and I have really been there for each other. Also, I know you are up there smiling and laughing about the fact that out of all of this Dana and I have become closer than ever before and I hope that relationship continues to grow because it is what you wanted. I'm so happy I saw you just hours before you were stolen from us all, I'm happy that you asked about Dana and I, so your heart was at ease. I'm glad I got to hug you, smell you, and hear you say "I love you baby squirrel" when you kissed my neck one last time. I know that Sully and I have the biggest, strongest, loving guardian angel watching over us. I love you more my turtle ... And I get the last word , even though I know you are up there saying "nope, I love you the mostest"

😭😭😭😭 Thank you for sharing that. It made me smile and cry. Melissa I love you forever and I will help to make sure everything he wanted, happens. I love you John. I know you know that. We had a soul connection. Not just a brother and sister earthly one. ...a real soul connection. I longed for the day that you and sully would visit. With Dana, Melissa...whoever you welcomed, I welcomed. Still do. ALWAYS will. My heart hurts unimaginably. I'm so angry with myself for always expecting to see you again when you got home...that's how it always worked, ya know. Now I know how I took it for granted. That, my brother, I don't think I'll ever get over. Knowing that we knew our lives for each other is the only thing that's gotten me this far. I hurt so badly. I love you so much. ...I'll never see a turtle or a hermit crab again without thinking of you. Love you so much!!!!!!
