“ LOVE YOU, MY BROTHER, NOW, THEN AND ALWAYS !!! So many memories, flooding in. There is so much I want to say, but I am not at my best right now. All is so jumbled and raw. I can't begin to put it into words. I MISS YOU !

“ He will be missed dearly. I am so grateful for all the time I got to spend with him. I have so many fond memories. I'll miss his stories, he had so many interesting and fun tales about things he did growing up. Little things remind me of him. Like the Indiana Jones movies we watched together when I was little. I wish I knew what to say. It doesn't really feel real yet. I feel like he could still pop in for a visit at any moment. I will miss him so much.

Love, Katie
