

John Glen "JG" Strobel Jr.

April 2, 1980 - October 7, 2020

John Glen "JG" Strobel, Jr., age 40 of Baltimore, Maryland, died unexpectedly on October 7, 2020 at his home. He was born on April 2, 1980 in Maryland to the late John Glen Strobel, Sr. and Betsy Jane Mitchell Strobel.

He received his Associates Degree in Business Administration. He was a certified personal trainer, worked the electrical trade, and was a lifelong fan of the Washington Football Team. When he was younger, he enjoyed playing little league baseball – his team went to the World Series in Taylor, Michigan in 1993.

He is survived by his son, John Glen, III; his sister, Jill A. Dunnington and her husband, Eldrich; his nephews, Daquan and Darian; and his niece, Marissa.

A Celebration of Life is planned for Saturday, November 21, 2020 at 1PM at The Rollins, 4865 Port Tobacco Road, Nanjemoy Maryland 20662 with a private burial at a later date at United Methodist Church Cemetery in Dentsville, Maryland.

Cemetery Details

Dentsville Methodist Cemetery

East Charles Street
La Plata, MD

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

NOV 21. 1:00 PM (ET)

The Rollins
4865 Port Tobacco Road
Nanjemoy, MD 20662

Tribute Wall

“ John Glen "JG" Strobel Jr.

October 08, 2023 at 10:45 PM

“ John Glen "JG" Strobel Jr.

October 04, 2023 at 03:12 PM