“ Where do you start with someone you have known all your life. Butch always had a good word to say. He loved to tell you about what he was up to. I know he loved to see my Mom & Dad (Frances & John Mudd) when we came down to play ball or just to sit and talk. My heart goes out to all my family there as it is a very hard time when you lose a love one like him. I was blessed to be able to be at Earl's last year to see Butch one more time. You will be missed Cuz.

“ To the Gardiner Family, my thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult and sorrowful time. May the many happy memories that you shared with Butch bring you comfort and peace. Butch was a very special man who saw the good in everyone and who rose above his limitations to become the person his parents and family could be proud of. Take comfort in knowing that he is no longer in pain and has been reunited with his mother and father. Butch may be physically gone, but his spirit will always be with you and watching over you.

“ Good lord where do i start. Uncle Butchie was so family oriented and he loved to be around everyone, telling us the same stories over and over again. But that's something i loved about him, he enjoyed talking about things that made him happy. Just like "his girls" made him happy, and im more than thankful to be able to say i was one of those girls, and i always will be. I remember all of the days he would take lyss and I to the pool, and he would let us do flips off him, and we'd think we were so cool being there because we got to walk through a gym, lol. And of course you can't forget the Mcdonald's runs after swimming. those were always a must!! and it alway's had to be Mcdonald's or lyss and i would have a fit. :) Then we would go to the house and jump on our "trampoline" or in better words, uncle butchie's bed! And When we got tired we'd cuddle up and watch Mary Kate and Ashley tapes. I also remember all the times he called me asking me to come help him clean his room! Like what? i can't even keep my own room clean! Although I still did anyways, because i love ya. :) You'll always be missed and loved more than anything. Keep looking over us Uncle Butchie. <3
