“ It is with deepest sympathy to have lost Joe as a dear and special friend and neighbor. He was always such a kind person who never failed to speak and chat when ever we met up when passing on our journey to work or ar home. My heart and prayers go out to his wife and JoJo along with the rest of his family and friends. You will be missed by so many. R.I.P. Joey ❤️

“ Joey and I have been friends since high school and reconnected at the Town of La Plata Public Works where we shared many late nights and laughs together. He has been a wonderful friend and confidante over the years and I will miss him greatly. My deepest condolences to Lorene, JoJo, Yvette, and the Garner family! Go rest high on that mountain, your work on earth is done!

Rest in Peace Brother!
