“ Joe was a character, love my uncle so much. I remember back in the early 80s I was working for him and his partner Wayne at the time. So they got home early one day with all these bags? I said what ? Uncle Joe said how do u like our new uniforms, they has got Levi's and dress clothes ,shoes , the whole time we were all laughing r asses off because they say these r right off on our taxes 😂😂 I can't remember what they gave me 😂 Will miss him calling me kiddo 😞

“ Sandy,

Many years ago when we were teenagers I witnessed first hand the true love you and Joe had for each other. That love endured through life's many challenges and blossomed again over past few years. Take comfort knowing Joe will never leave you. He is watching over you and preparing for when you will be together again.

In our prayers.

Love,

Debbie "Head" Roth & Family
