“ Mr. Burch was truly a great neighbor. His pleasant smile and friendly greeting as we would pass in the driveway or maybe see each other at the fruit stand will be greatly missed. May our God ever keep his family until they meet again. To Mrs. Bruch " May God's riches and best be your's"

“ Mr. Burch was such a friendly and warm fellow. My encounters with him at Gardiner Outdoor Products was always pleasant. It was a surprise when I learned that his son Mark worked with my husband Roger and his son Mike worked at St. Mary's Bryantown where he cared for both of my children. When I found out Mr. Burch was their dad it was no surprise where their caring and kind ways came from. Mrs. Burch was the second grade aide for St. Mary's for a good number of years and he would joke that she kept him in line. A wonderful man, a wonderful family, and my sincerest sympathy for your loss. Heaven's gain is truly our loss.
