Joe was born on September 10, 1942 in the Bronx, New York, to Peter and Celia (Gaglio) Truncale. He is predeceased by his parents, his brothers Vincent and Peter, and his beloved first wife, Valerie Truncale, with whom he shared 55 wonderful years of marriage and raised three sons: Robert, Peter, and Christopher.

Joe is survived by his loving wife of four years, Rebecca Daguio-Truncale, his children Robert (Debbie), Peter (Anne), and Christopher; his grandchildren Amanda (Tommy), Nathaniel (Kathryn), Alyssa, and Caden; and his great grandchildren Rory and Hayden. He also leaves behind numerous extended family members and friends who loved him dearly.

After graduating high school Joe proudly served in the United States Air Force, where he achieved the rank of Technical Sergeant (E6) in the communications field during his 17 years of service.

Joe was a man of faith who loved serving the Lord and his community. He was an active member and usher of Fellowship Church in White Plains, Maryland, and worked with the Awana Ministry, mentoring youth for many years.

In his early years, Joe enjoyed hunting - especially all types of land and water fowl. Joe also found joy in traveling, fishing, and cheering on the Washington Redskins. He loved old cowboy movies and 50's music which always brought a smile to his face. Above all, Joe cherished time with his family. He was known for his big heart, kindness, and generosity.

Joe's life was a testament to love, faith, family, and service. He will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

“ I first met Jo in 2023, and I asked him about how he met Ate Bec. He was gracious enough to tell their love story, with matching 'kilig' pa. I could tell he was happy and contented in their life together.

Here's hugging you, Ate Bec! Jo was a really good man.
