“ Sharon: I am so very sorry to hear the sad news. I didn't know your dad that well but I do remember seeing him and your mom at church back in the day. They always had a smile and were so friendly. My thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. You now have another angel in heaven to watch over you.

“ Dear Sharon, Josh, Donna, and family. I am sad to have just read the obituary for Joseph. I have fond memories of the years that Joanne and Joseph were active parishioners at the new Our Lady Help of Christians Catholic Parish, with their children and grandchildren--and now great grandchildren. Those were the early days of the Parish, when good leaders were needed to get the ball rolling; and Joseph and Joanne willingly and gladly volunteered their ideas, effort, time, and money. I know Joseph is happy and at peace to be with his God, and his loving wife, Joanne, again. I extend my heartfelt sympathy to their family on earth who will have 2 large gaps that can't be filled, except with beautiful, loving memories of their years together. I will be at the Wake and Funeral; please call me if I can help you in any way. With lots of love, Fran Bryner

“ Sheri, Josh, Donna, and family,

My heart aches for you at having lost your father, but how blessed are you to have had Joseph for your Dad. He was determined, honest, kind, loyal, and devoted to his family. Summer vacations at the lake are some of my most treasured family memories, and I vividly remember the sound of his robust greetings, banter, bark, and easy laughter. You can bet there is a joyful reunion in heaven with Joanne, Dick and Dot ... possibly seated around a poker table littered with pennies, nickles, and dimes! :)) Our Savior teaches us to rejoice for Joe, made new and without physical pain, now at home in the presence of Almighty God. May you find peace in our Lord's promise of eternal salvation, and comfort in your memories.

Rest in peace Joseph, I will be praying for you.

*Love to the Weingarden, Caniglia, and Brocht families

“ *Sharon, Josh, Donna and all family members,
The stories and memories shared by your family of your Mom and Dad and the Lake house always reminds me how important family is. May this sweet man now find eternal rest in our God's Kingdom and I am sure Mom is happy to have him home with her.
May the comfort of joyous memories help you through this difficult time.
