“ My name is Angie and I am the mother of Josie's mom's BFF from high school. My daughter and Angie lost touch over the years but reconnected several years ago on Facebook. Angie was like a second daughter to me and I remember well when she had Josie. Josie was such a sweet little baby and trust me when I say, she changed her mother's life. Josie - I did not know you as an adult but I have always known the impact you had on your mother's life. And I can tell you that you look soooooo much like her when she was younger! I hope that you have found peace in the next life. Your soul was too kind for this world. Rest in Power baby girl.
