“ I've known Josh almost all his life, I consider him my son,when ever I'd see Josh he would say hi Mom with a huge hug,that always made my heart smile... he's always called me Mom from day one and has been a kind hearted young man to me know matter the situation, he's went out of his way several times to get me to the store or wherever I needed to go ,just out of the kindness of his heart, Josh will always be loved and missed greatly by me and everyone that knew him especially his brothers and sisters as I watch the sorrow they're going through this truly is heartbreaking for me but if anyone had any doubt of how much they loved you they surely have passed the test of loving you more than any brother can be loved, as I write this the tears flow down for the bitter sweetness of this whole ordeal, the bitterness because you left us and the sweetness of all the memories you left for us all tied up in one, I'm sure you're in God's arms resting as he shines to light down to show you how much you have meant to us all, now that you have your golden wings soar High and watch over all your loved ones, Rest Peacefully Josh,I love and will miss you dearly ❤️🙏✝️🙏🙏🙏🙏🙏✝️🙏
