“ To my Sister ; Joyce you where 7yr's.older then me and took care of Doug and I when we were little so both Mom and Dad could go to work. I always thought how beautiful you where and you would make us laugh. Now you have resached your destination that you have long for. How I can recall the talks we have had about going home to see Jesus Our Lord and Mom and Dad and our two brothers. I miss my FAMILY so much but one day soon I will be with you'll . There is so many Memories I can keep in my heart of 69yr's. I had you with me and I thank God he gave you to be as my sister. i know your smile has lited up Heaven. Your Little Sister Barbara

Our last memories were Aunt Joyce line dancing at a family wedding and Uncle Alton telling stories of her tea parties and crumpets at the senior center. Their marriage is a beautiful testament to all our family. I'll bet she saw Jesus when she flashed her beautiful last smile on earth.
