

Juana Isabel Shasho

November 19, 1923 - November 12, 2016

Juana Isabel Shasho, aged 92, died peacefully on November 12, 2016 at home in her Lakewood Ranch, Florida Residence, after struggling with Alzheimer's disease. Juana was born November 19, 1923 in Havana, Cuba, the daughter of Doctor Juana de la Cruz Castro and Alberto Ramon Llovet.

Juana, who also goes by the name Jenny, was a devoted Catholic. While working as a salesgirl on Flagler Street in Miami, Florida, she met Abraham Shasho, her future husband and life-long companion of more than 65 years. Abraham served in Japan, Saipan, Okinawa, and Pearl Harbor during World War II as a Corporal in the U.S.M.C. Juana had a charismatic, warm and loving personality and seemed to make new friends effortlessly. She loved to dance, especially Cuban Salsa. She lived life happily and always with a positive outlook. Juana loved her family the most.

She leaves behind her husband, Abraham Shasho; sons, Harry and Ray Shasho; daughter-in-law Sharon (Clements) Shasho; grandchildren, Christopher and Teresa Shasho, Michelle Wallin (Shasho) and Raymond Shasho; great-grandchildren, Charis Shasho, Anthony Clark, Jack Shasho, Isabel Rubio, and Madden Shasho; nephews, and nieces with endless affectionate and happy memories.

Friends received on Friday, November 18, 2016 from 11:30AM until time of Wake Service at 12PM at Raymond Funeral Service Chapel, 5635 Washington Avenue, La Plata, Maryland 20646. A committal service at the Mausoleum will follow at 1PM at Resurrection Cemetery in Clinton, Maryland.

In lieu of flowers, memorial gifts may be made to Humane Society of Manatee County (www.humanemanatee.org/donate-online-c224i).
