“ So sorry to hear about the loss of my cousin. Have great memories of your visits to Baltimore back in the day. You always had a concern for those who were less fortunate in life and great compassion. Peace and Blessings to Aquila, Issa and Carl. I know this is a difficult time for you. Can't believe you are young men now. Your grandparents use to bring you to Baltimore to celebrate my kids birthdays. God loves you even in this time of sorrow. 🙏❤️❤️

“ As you continue your journey in another realm our thoughts and prayers go with you. My memories of you go way back to when we were very young, during my family's annual summer visits to the Maryland area. We didn't get the opportunity to know each other very well, us living in Colorado and then North Carolina, but I did keep up a bit on Facebook. May the peace which comes from the memories of love comfort the immediate family now and in the days ahead. Our hearts are saddened as we know that she will be missed tremendously. You're all in our prayers.

“ Sorry to hear this of my first cousin, Judy. I am happy that she and I exchanged the occasional social media message the last few years when she or I posted something. It was nice to connect. I also noticed like me, she is a Gemini. I always felt we had a spiritual connection in that regard and saw some things about the world the same. My fondness memories are those from when we were all very young and my father would bring us out to his younger brother, Aquila's home, first in Seat Pleasant and then, in Fort Washington. For a time, our families would regularly get to connect in various ways. I do not get to see them all as much but the bond I have with them is unbreakable because of those days. Peace and Blessings to Judy on her eternal cosmic journey.
