“ Justin was a fine young man! He fixed our chimney that needed his talent. He was always polite and his smile was sincere. We appreciated his work ethic as well. He and his crew had the hottest weather doing our job; but, Justin had them here every day except rainy ones. I will miss chatting with him in person and by phone. Rest well, Justin. Our prayers go up for all of your family and friends.

“ My Brother. A Loving Father. A True Friend.

I'm glad I saw you when I did. I'm glad I got to hug you and tell you that I love you one last time. You left your mark on my life, introducing me to an industry and a company that has changed my life and the life of my family. I see you everywhere, every day. I am eternally grateful for you.

I'll never forget how smart Justin was. He would wake up first thing in the morning to do his crossword puzzles, and would ALWAYS figure them out (with no internet). I remember him clear-minded, clean. We helped each other make it through the toughest time in our lives. Sometimes I'd help him, other times he'd help me. It has always been deeper than the surface for him.

He taught me how to play spades and was extremely competitive no matter what we were doing. He wanted to be the best at everything he did. On the basketball court he was a tenacious defender and would NOT shy away from trash talk. I could still see him coming back from the gym and drinking his big jug of water, eating right, reading his mens health magazine and taking care of his body. I believe that's who he wanted to be. He wanted life, a good life. Although we see it is death, I believe he now has everything he ever wanted and more. I love you J Dub. Everlasting life awaits you. You will not be forgotten.

“This young man was a gift to all, especially his family. He had a smile as wide & as bright as the sun; and a gift of gab that never stopped. His bubbly personality could light up a room. We all loved him to the moon & back & our hearts are filled with sadness at his passing, but we rest in the belief that Justin has not left us - he has only passed us up on the journey home with God, our Father, and is there waiting for us to join him in our turn. I love you, Justin - then, now & always. Hugs, Grandma June, au revoir.
