“ With deepest sympathy to Karen's family. I have fond memories from my childhood when the Burns' children would join my cousins and me for outdoor games and sledding at Aunt Mildred's house. Additionally, during my teenager years, I remember having dinner with the Burns' family in their home. Karen and her siblings were so kind to me and defended me when their dad would say to me, "you eat like a bird." May all of you treasure your time with and memories of dear, sweet, Karen.

“ Our sincere sympathy to the family at this painful time. We have fond childhood memories with Karen and her siblings while living in the Baden community. May God be with each of you today and in the days to come. The Boswell family
