“ Aunt Karen, you were the coolest aunt ever. I always loved bringing my kids over to your house in Clinton. We always had so much fun there, especially on the back porch swing. I'll never forget the day you started laying the bricks for the back porch. You were so talented. What a beauty it turned out to be. Say hi to Uncle George, Kari and Shelby for me. I will miss your friendly smile and how I always felt at home in your house. Rest in peace until we meet again❤️

The house could have been In Camp Springs. At my age it's hard to remember.
