

Keith Daniel Sams

September 4, 1983 - February 17, 2023

In the early morning of February 17, 2023, God called Keith Daniel Sams, 39, of Waldorf, MD to rest.

Keith was born on September 4, 1983 in La Plata, MD to Karen E. (Watson) and Steven W. Sams.

Keith had many hobbies. He liked going fast, if ever presented with an opportunity to get onto an ATV, it didn't take long before he was flying through the air, woods, or powerlines. He had the opportunity to drive a Nascar car on the Daytona 500 track, and was clocked at speeds exceeding 200 mph.

He was the owner of Small Engine Man; he had a skill with anything that had an engine. He also was a Journeyman Electrician, specializing in Fire Alarms. He took great pride in his work, and was eager to show you all of the buildings in DC that he worked in.

Keith is preceded in death by his father, Steven Sams, Sr.; Gran, Elizabeth Ann Watson; sister, Connie Sams; and nephew, Kyle Sams.

He is survived by his loving and supportive mother, Karen E. Rustin and step-father Paul; grandfather, Henry Watson; the love of his life, Samantha; children; Kaiden, and Kylee Sams, Elijah, Jimmy, Donnie, and Olivia; siblings;

Rusty Sams and wife Liz, and Steven Sams, Jr. He loved being an uncle to Brandon, Rylan, Alex, Amelia, Emily, Anderson, and Abigail. Keith was loved and adored by all who were lucky enough to cross paths with him.

Friends will be received on Monday, February 27, 2023 from 10:00 AM until time of Memorial Mass at 11:00 AM at St. Mary's Catholic Church, 13715 Notre Dame Place, Bryantown, MD 20617. Interment will be private.

“ Keith I remember when you had that accident on your bike. Nearly tore me apart to know that you were injured. You are just like a son, a brother and cousin to all of use. If I fussed at Michael I fussed you as well. You both drove me crazy. If I had known that my last long and very long hug from you was my last at Connie's service. I would've made sure to come home more often to get more. I love you Keith ❤️ with all my heart. Love mom Nadine

“ My condolences go out to Keith's family. Even though it's been quite some time since we had seen each other and had got caught up it doesn't change the fact that Keith was a good soul and would do anything for anyone. Glad that I had the privilege of knowing him for 15 plus years whether I seen him on a daily basis or not. Another one gone way too soon. My condolences and may you rest in peace until I am called home and we see each other again
