“ My memories of Kelli go back to when she first met my Brother, David, so many years ago. I knew it was truly love at first sight. I can't recall ever a time when the two of them were not together. They were true soul mates and best friends. With their two boys, Owen and Kasen, they created a strong family to be emulated by all. Together, they were wonderful friends to so many. Kelli was a substitute Moma for my daughter Shannon, who is beside herself with grief. My thoughts and prayers are with Shannon, David, my nephews Owen and Kasen, as well as my Dad, and everyone else, to include Kelli's Mom Kathy, and all of her other family memories. We've lost an amazing individual on earth, but gained an angel in heaven. My heart continues to ache. SIS

“ I only met this beautiful lively woman only a couple of times when she came into the bar i worked at. She has remained in my memory as a fun, outgoing and extremely friendly person who exuded positive energy that rubbed off on those around her. I remember she came in with her dad one day and i thought to myself what a close bond they shared. How devastating to see such an incredible person leave this earth. I know she will be missed by so many.
