“ We had the honor of calling Kevin a member of our family when he married Kristina. Though we have not seen him, Kristina and the kids for a few years they have always remained in our heart. Kevin was a hard worker and good family man. He will be missed by all who knew him. Our heart breaks for Kristina and the kids. One thing that always stands out in mind was his love of the Pittsburgh Steelers. I am sure if it was still his favorite team he will be rooting from up above. RIP Kevin.
Love you all

“ I met Kevin a few years ago, working at our weekend job at Pizza Hotline. Ironically we both lived in La Plata, worked our regular job in Prince Frederick and then weekends at the pizza shop. Every Saturday he'd walk in the door with a booming "Whaaassssup?" He was quite a character, and always willing to lend a hand. He helped me several times with my daughter's car parts and any time I needed mechanical advice. He will be missed and I am so saddened for all who knew him. His love for his family was well known, as he often talked about his family at work. My heart goes out to them.
