Her preschool years were spent in Maryland, then continued in Northern Virginia where she attended kindergarten through her high school graduation at Lake Braddock High School in Burke, Virginia.

Laurie was an avid animal lover, especially dogs. Her little Shih Tzu, Domino, died in her arms on New Year's Eve, 2006. She is survived by her cocker/corgy, Murphy, 19.

Laurie was also an avid sports fan, especially the Colorado Avalanche Hockey Team, in particular, her favorite player, Joe Sakic.

Laurie loved to travel. Some of her favorite memories included her cross-country trip with her Grandpap and Mom from Maryland to Utah; and her adventures in Cancun, San Francisco, Florida and cruising to the Bahamas.

She was a dancer from the age of four through college. She loved to read, and was an avid Civil War buff. She loved Christmas and birthdays. She loved to play games with her grandmother who lovingly called her "Tuddlebum," and taking her grandpap, who she lovingly called "blue eyes" to dinner and movies.
